

Alexandros Kapraras

Born in Cyprus, Alexandros Kapraras, better known here in London as Alex, was educated in Athens at the Athens School of Fine Art. He has further degrees in the History of Art, Sculpture and Fresco and Byzantine art before moving to London where in 1993 he obtained an MA at the Royal College of Art

During these years he received the following awards:

1993-1995 Greek State of Fellowship for MA

1986-1991 Greek State of Fellowship for BA

1991 Royal College of Art London UK (The Erasmus exchange program)

Kapraras Alexandros left sitting with Vivianne Lakra right Greece Solidarity Committee member shown with the artwork he has donated to The Greece Solidarity campaign

As a student of art and, later, a professional artist, Alex spent his younger years travelling the world, exhibiting and developing his own unique style of painting. Alex has donated an original watercolour showing the Greek flag.

Alex's exhibitions include:

Solo Exhibitions

2000 Gallery Ersis Athens Greece
1998 Gallery 74 Naestved Denmark
1998 Iliotropio Gallery Larnaca Cyprus
1997 Argo Gallery Nicosia Cyprus
1993 House of Cyprus Athens Greece
1990 House of Cyprus Athens Greece

Group Exhibitions

1998 K.Gallery London UK
1997 K.Gallery London UK
1995 Royal College of Art London UK
1995 Hammersmith Hospital London UK
1995 Flower East London UK
1994 Royal College of Art London UK
1993 Maria Papadopoulou Gallery Athens Greece
1992 Nicosia Cyprus "The Divided Nicosia"
1992 House of Cyprus
1992 Municipality of Leukada Greece
1992 Culture Centre of Hydra Greece
1992 Municipality of Byronas Athens Greece
1991 National Gallery Athens Greece
1991 Royal College of Art London UK
1989 Antinor Gallery Athens Greece
1989 Eolos Gallery Athens Greece
1987 House of Cyprus Athens Greece

His work is in the following collections:

Hellenic Ministry of Culture
Cypriot Ministry of Culture
Pitsillides Collection Athens Greece
Sulleiman Al Awecii Kuwait
Prezzo LTD Collection London UK
Private collections in Greece,Cyprus,Germany,UK,
Italy,Denmark,Norway,USA